Reverend William Steven Allen, Sr.

Rev. William Steven Allen, Sr. is a native of Greensboro, North Carolina and the youngest of three children born to William Allen and Sarah Hunt Allen.

He is a summa cum laude graduate of North Carolina A&T State University; the University of North Carolina- Chapel Hill School of Law and the Shaw University Divinity School in Raleigh, North Carolina.

Following law school, he served as research assistant to The Honorable Richard C. Erwin, Judge of the North Carolina Court of Appeals. At the conclusion of his clerkship, Pastor Allen set up a law office in Greensboro, North Carolina. Prior to assuming the pastorate, he was engaged in a general law practice that included an active trial practice in state and federal courts.

Reverend Allen is a lifelong member of Shiloh Baptist Church in Greensboro, North Carolina. On January 14, 2007, he was licensed as a Baptist preacher by Shiloh Baptist Church. On September 13, 2009, he was ordained by Shiloh Baptist Church. Reverend Allen received a Master of Divinity Degree from Shaw University in May 2011. In September 2011, Shiloh Baptist Church extended the call to Reverend Allen to serve as its eleventh pastor. On November 1, 2011 he began his work as pastor. Under his leadership the church is experiencing a glorious rebirth. Under his pastorate new life is being given to the church's motto, "Shiloh Cares About People." Reverend Allen's ministry is a servant oriented ministry which seeks to help others. Under his leadership, the church has resumed participation in and faithful support of the Rowan Association and the General Baptist State Convention.

Pastor Allen is a member of the General Board of the North Carolina General Baptist State Convention, Inc.

Rev. Allen is married to Sharlene Fuller Allen. They are the proud parents of six children: Stephanie Lanae Allen, Melanie Renee Allen, William Steven Allen, Jr., Irving David Allen, Richard Erwin Allen and Lara Simone Allen. They have four grandchildren – Amaya Nicole Wilkins-Allen, Kamryn Elise Allen, Kawai Allen and Jayson William Allen.
